

AN AXIOMATIZATION OF THE COMPLEX UNIT DISC

Alexander Prestel
(University of Konstanz, Konstanz)

As it is well-known, Krull generalized the notion of a non-archimedean absolute value in 1932 to the notion of a valuation. In this talk we shall explain a generalization of archimedean absolute values. This work is based on a rather late paper of Krull from 1961.